The purpose of this amendment is to answer the following questions:

1. Question: To replace the VCT, are we to remove/reinstall the kitchen tables and lockers or work around them, and if they are to be removed, where may they be stored?

Answer: The tables and lockers in the kitchen area will be removed by the occupants of the building. The lockers in the locker-room will remain in place; the contractor is to cut the floor tile around lockers and install cove base around the base of the lockers.

2. Question: Who is responsible for moving the drink machines, refrigerators, food warmer, and other items in the kitchen, and if the contractor is responsible for moving them, where may they be stored?

Answer: The occupants of the building will be responsible for removing these items and storing them away from the work area.
